Plunging Makes a Difference

Being a Plunger means cooling your body while warming hearts. The Polar Plunge is a signature fundraiser for Special Olympics and offers a unique opportunity for individuals and organizations to raise money and support SOIA athletes by jumping into frigid waters. In 2014, Plungers raised nearly $350,000 for Iowa athletes, giving them opportunities to participate in year-round sports, health and educational programming - and most importantly - experience joy, pride and respect.

"For me, Special Olympics is not just about competing for medals and ribbons although that is fun! It is about traveling to new places. It is about friends old and new. It is about sportsmanship, cheering for one another and high fives."
- Sara Cummings, Special Olympics athlete & Global Messenger
