RICH FELLINGHAM

Rich Fellingham was a leader in the Special Olympics movement for 12+ years as President and CEO of Special Olympics Iowa. During his tenure, he achieved countless accomplishments for the movement, including bringing the first-ever USA Games to Ames in 2006, championing a capital campaign for the Richard O Jacobson Training Center, which is home to the Special Olympics Iowa state office, and chairing the national fundraising and development committee for Special Olympics. His years of dedication to the mission and Special Olympics movement have positively impacted the lives of individuals with intellectual disabilities in Iowa and across the country.

ABOUT SPECIAL OLYMPICS IOWA

- Special Olympics Iowa benefits more than 14,500 athletes with intellectual disabilities and Unified partners in each of Iowa's 99 counties.
- Provides training and competitions in 23 Olympic-type sports.
- Hosts over 150 events statewide throughout the year, including 8 State Competitions. The Mid-Winter Tournament is one of those State Competitions and is held annually in Coralville in March.
- More than 1,300 SOIA athletes compete in basketball, basketball skills, powerlifting, gymnastics, cheerleading, and dance during the Mid-Winter Tournament.
